

Press release: 8 March 2018

Paw Patrol to launch 2018 season at the iconic Ravenglass and Eskdale Railway

The iconic Ravenglass and Eskdale Railway will launch its 2018 season of family friendly events when Paw Patrol pays a very special visit on the 24th and 25th March 2018.

Grab your ticket quick though as places are limited for this weekend of truly 'paw some' adventures when the heroic pups Chase and Marshall make personal appearances at the heritage railway.

The two-day family event is guaranteed to keep everyone entertained with not only photo opportunities with the pups themselves, but ticket holders are also treated to a wonderful magic show by Stu-Di-Doo and an enhanced event train service will run throughout the weekend.

Booking is essential and simply select a "SPECIAL EVENT RIDE ALL DAY" ticket online and save money online or alternatively just turn up on the day and purchase at the Ravenglass ticket office. Tickets include all day travel on the Railway, meet & greet and a voucher to return to the Railway in the 2018 season. As well as meeting Chase and Marshall at timed intervals throughout the day at Dalegarth.

Lisa Braithwaite, Attractions Manager at the Ravenglass and Eskdale Railway says;

"We are delighted to be launching the railway's 2018 season with such a loveable duo of Chase and Marshall from Paw Patrol. We look forward to a full weekend of entertainment and welcoming back our loyal customers and fans of the railway as well as meeting first time visitors throughout the 2018 season."

ENDS

Notes for editors:

Time slots for tickets from Ravenglass are: 9:25, 10:25, 10:45, 11:25, 11:45, 12:25, 12:45 or 13:25. £16.50 per adult, £9.90 per child. Dogs not permitted. (*Online saving £1 on the adult fare and 50p on the child fare [under three years FREE]).