Thank you for lending us your support by planning a visit to Ravenglass & Eskdale Railway. Please note, in order to manage capacity and ensure the safety of our passengers and staff, all passengers are required to purchase a dated and timed ticket in advance of their visit. Departure stations are Ravenglass or Dalegarth. Our intermediate stations will be closed until further notice.

We have strengthened our health & safety regimes in accordance to Government guidelines.

- Business is 'Unusual' but we are ready to welcome you with a few Ratty rules in place!
- We will be operating fewer trains to a NEW timetable for Summer/Autumn 2020
- There's lots to explore from our two station stops, find out more with our online itinerary planner
- Train compartments have been separated so you can keep your distance
- Please bring your own face covering to wear on board
- Pre-book your carriage type – open (outside), semi-open and enclosed (inside)
- First Class Observation Carriage hire for household parties up to 14 passengers - just £150
- NEW for 2020 pre-book your Railway picnic box and complete your family day out
